Intensive General German

Course Topics

Listening Skills

Listening skills will be practised extensively, using a variety of activities and tasks, to enable students to be able to process the information and become more confident in this skill.

Speaking Skills

Speaking will be an integral part of lessons. Students are given the opportunity to express their ideas in a relaxed classroom atmosphere, by use of a range of activities to encourage communication.

Reading Skills

A variety of reading activities is used to encourage students to develop the various reading skills that are needed to read effectively.

Writing Skills

Writing will be practised to develop accuracy. Writing activities may also be set for homework.

Grammar Awareness

Grammar for effective communication will be presented and practised at all levels.

Vocabulary

Vocabulary is a key element in learning a foreign language. Various activities to encourage the acquisition of vocabulary are an integral part of the course.

Course Content and Strategies

This German course trains General German in small groups with 8 participants maximum. Teachers make sure that you get the personal attention you need and learn German fast and effectively. All courses are complemented by after-class activities in Berlin.

Our approach develops all aspects of German, e.g. listening, speaking, reading and writing. Classes are offered from A1-C2. The course will develop the participant's language skills to help enable them to teach and communicate in different contexts.

The class teacher is responsible for class progress and academic welfare. Homework is set and GLS offers a student office hour to discuss progress.
