Course Content and Strategies

The main approach adopted in the classes is communicative. This covers all aspects of the Italian language skills - speaking, listening, reading and writing as well as pronunciation, vocabulary and grammar activities. Class work includes individual, pair and group work, discussions, debates, roleplays, presentations, written tasks and listening exercises. Students are actively encouraged to share their own ideas and practicing the language in a friendly environment with other international students of varying backgrounds.

In morning classes, a new grammar topic is introduced to the class each week. Students will develop their linguistic and cultural skills of the Italian language through the teacher guidance. A progress test is scheduled on the last day of the week to assess the acquisition of the contents of the lessons. Students will attend additional language and cultural seminars in the afternoons.

The afternoon classes will focus on Italian Literature, Cinema and Theatre. The 1-week course will be a general introduction to the main aspects of the 20th century Italian Literature, Cinema & Theatre. The 2-week course will also focus on a short analysis of excerpts by selected authors. The Art class will deal with the Amalfi Coast art (ceramics) and it includes a practical painting lesson. Some activities (Salerno city tour and cultural seminars) are included.

Excursions and visits with tasting can be booked at extra cost.
